TRICK – ART – TREAT: FIRST FRIDAY WITH THE ARTS

CAPE GIRARDEAU, MO – On October 2, 2015 from 5:00 – 9:00 pm, join the First Friday Art Walk for a Halloween themed evening you won't easily forget! This event is a Stamp Card event sponsored by First Friday with the Arts partners.

In addition to the typical gallery openings the public has come to expect during the First Fridays, there will be many family friendly activities for participants to enjoy. Visitors can pick up a stamp card at any participating gallery and if they get at least 6 stamps from businesses listed on the card, they are eligible to receive a free fall or pumpkin beer, courtesy of the Broadway Biergarten!

During the evening, art galleries and downtown merchants will pass out candies to trick-or-treaters, a photo booth will be set up to capture kooky costumes, visitors can purchase a personalized headstone piñata or participate in a costume contest hosted by On Cue Performing Arts Studio in collaboration with Cape Comic Con and Acting Out!. Kids can also decorate a pumpkin or trick-or-treat bag and enjoy accordion music by Jonathan M. Patterson along Main Street.

Dr. Daniel Crocker will also conduct Spooky Story Readings at Cup N Cork starting with a family friendly story at 5:30 pm and ending with an adults-only scary story at 8:30 pm.

A hayride will also run the duration of the evening, allowing visitors to travel from Main Street to participating locations on Broadway.
