SATURDAY SOCIAL: LAWN ART CREATIONS WITH PHYLLIS ADAMS

CAPE GIRARDEAU, MO—Saturday, June 22, from 2 to 4 p.m., the Arts Council of Southeast Missouri invites you to attend a Saturday Social featuring The Silver Crow Lady, Phyllis Adams. Phyllis is known for her beautiful silver jewelry, and her garden art creations.

Recently, Phyllis became interested in making Lawn Art out of recycled dinnerware. Using odds and ends bud vases, saucers, goblets, and dinner plates, Phyllis creates items that can be used for garden ornamentation, bird-baths, bird feeders, candleholders, and many other purposes!

Phyllis says of her Lawn Art, "Each item is produced from an assortment of odds and ends pieces put together for stability. Really, they're just supposed to look pretty in your yard, but they truly have so many uses! I've made Garden Mushrooms, Plate Flowers and other pieces that you can do whatever you want to with them."

During the Saturday Social, Phyllis will aid workshop participants in creating their very own Recycled Lawn Art. The Arts Council will provide the appropriate glue and preparation materials, however participants will be responsible for bringing a bud vase and odds and ends saucers, bowls, cups, goblets, etc. to use. Participants can use this as an opportunity to clean out their cabinets!

The Arts Council highly encourages all ages to attend, but parental supervision is required for children under 12. Workshop fees cover supplies and instruction. Fees are $10 for Arts Council Members and $15 for Non-Members. If you have any questions about what to bring, feel free to give the Arts Council a call at 573-334-9233.

Come join other arts patrons and supporters in welcoming Silver Crow Lady Phyllis Adams, Saturday, June 22, at the Arts Council of Southeast Missouri, located at 32 North Main Street in Cape Girardeau, MO. The gallery is also open Tuesday-Saturday, from 10am to 4pm.
